Inglewood 150 Years

The town, initially named Moatown, later Milton, was officially named Inglewood in 1875 to avoid confusion with another location. The town's early history involved clearing dense bush and attracting settlers through various immigration schemes

Recently a couple of our members viewed the Puke Ariki collection and were amazed at the amount of detail and information. Below is a link to a pop-up with some amazing photos.

https://www.taranakimediaarchive.co.nz/collection/Inglewood-150th-pop-up-museum-full-walk-through-2025-video